

Vail Williams Complaints Handling Procedure Reviewed February 2024

Raising a complaint – informal resolution

In the first instance, we encourage you to raise your concerns with the Lead Partner/Central Services Manager, responsible for the service involved, (click hyperlinks) to Find Service Heads, alternatively the Find Regional Leaders responsible for the area, using Find Regional Leader. This can be in person, in writing or by telephone. We will listen to and attempt to address your concerns directly with you. This can often bring resolution quickly.

However, if after discussing the matter with the above parties, you are not satisfied with the outcome and wish to take this further, there is the facility to make a formal complaint.

Raising a formal complaint – formal resolution

For surveying and professional services, as a regulated RICS firm we have in place a complaint handling procedure to enable you to escalate issues or concerns that you have been unable to resolve during informal resolution. The procedure has two stages.

For any complaints outside of our surveying and professional services our complaints handling procedure remains suitable. However, there will be no facility to escalate the issue to an independent redress provider. You should follow the procedures set out in stage one only.

Stage One

Where the initial complaint is made verbally, you are requested to send a written summary of the complaint to the Complaints Officer at complaints@vailwilliams.com

When writing to us, please provide a summary of your complaint including:

- The person at Vail Williams who is dealing with your instruction or service.
- What service we were providing to you, or you were providing to us
- Where you consider we have failed to meet expected standards.
- What solution you would ideally like to achieve.

We will acknowledge receipt of the written summary within 5 working days of receipt and will commence our investigation.

Within 20 working days of receipt of the written summary, we will write to advise you of the outcome of the investigation and to advise what action has been or will be taken. In some instances, your complaint may take longer than this to investigate, if so we will write to inform you of this within 20 working days of receipt of the written summary.

If the outcome does not resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, please let us know and we will respond to you within a further 15 working days.

Surveying and professional services only

Stage Two

If we are unable to agree on how to resolve to your satisfaction your complaint, then you have the opportunity to take your complaint to an independent redress provider, as approved by RICS Regulatory Board. We have chosen to use the following redress providers:

For Business-to-Business Clients (Company with more than 10 employees) Alternative dispute resolution for Survey and Professional Services	For Consumer Clients (an individual or a company with less than 10 employees) in relation to Surveying and Professional Services	For Consumer Clients in relation to Residential Leasehold Property Management
Centre for Effective Disputes Resolution (CEDR)	Centre for Effective Disputes Resolution (CEDR)	The Property Redress Scheme (PRS)
